RETURN DAY .- To-day has been set apart as the return day for the cases to be tried in the Court of General Sessions in this city during the

THE AFTERNOON, at the Academy of Music. will be played the famous "Joan of Arc," with the anachronic "Shoo, Fly," an undoubted native of Charleston. We again remind our citizens that all the mency paid by children who visit the Academy this afternoon will be given, without any deduction, to the "Home for the Mothers, Widows and Daughters" of the Confederate dead.

LIGHTNING RODS .- Mr. Pendleton, of Augusta, is now in Charleston as the representative of the firm of W. H. Goodrich & Son, who are the exclusive manufacturers and proprietors for Geor gia, South Carolina and Florida, of the "copper scroll lightning rod." This is Hall's patent, and is recommended by some of the most eminent scientific men in the country as the best "lightning rod" in use.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Caleb Backus, a fireman on board of the steamship Sea Gull, which arrived here yesterday morning from Baltimore, fell dows on Thursday in a faint, and died two hours after from, it is supposed, excessive use of ice water while heated. The deceased belongs to Baltimore, where he leaves a wife and several chil dren. Coroner Whiting will hold an inquest on the body at the Roper Hospital, it having been taken there from the ship.

To-Night .-- To-morrow will care for itself. To-night, at the Academy of Music, we have "Paul Pry;" not Mother Hubbard, but Father Bishop, who will astonish Charleston in a role that the unctuous Liston, a quarter of a century ago, made particularly his own. Added to Bishop, will be the far-famed burlesque "Kenilworth," in which the Arch-Bishops, Blancke and Bila Chapman, will again fascinate youth and unbend the severities of age. A bumper ! for this Saturday night.

CRUMBS .- The Sumter News was misinformed. The ginhouse of Dr. J. B. Witherspoon was not burnt.

A new postoffice has been established at "Ward's Turnout," on the Columbia and Augusta Railroad, and Mr. Bryane Hughes has been appointed postmaster.

The safe stolen from the cars last week has been found at the bottom of an old well, in the old brick vard below Camden. Jim Kirkland, alias Adamson, has been arrested and is now in

THE SAVANNAH AND CHARLESTON RAILBOAD. It is reported that the Savannah and Charleston Railroad purchased the steamer Fannie at the recent sale of the steamboat property of the late Captain John Ferguson, and she will be used in future as a ferry boat to ply between the city depotend the Ashley River terminus of that road. This will be a wonderful improvement on the barges now in use, and is perhaps the foreshadow ing of greater things to come when the bridge will be rebuilt and a union depot an established BLOCKADE IN WESTERN FREIGHT .- The Ma con Telegraph and Messenger says dispatches were received in Macon, on Wednesday, from Louisville houses, stating that shipments could not be made in consequence of the Louisville and Nashville and Nashville and Chattanooga Railroads being choked with freight. It is said there are no less than sixteen hundred carloads at Nashville awaiting transportation Seuth, and at least half that number at Chattanooga. In consequence of this, bacon, bulk meats, corn and other produce are getting scarce in our market.

LECTURES ON TURKEY .- The Rev. Arthur Bogdan, the Nestorian will deliver a course of three lectures on the "Life, Manners and Habits of the People of Turkey," and on the "Eastern Question," beginning on Tucsday next. The lec tures will be delivered in the new Music Hall corner of King and Market streets, and the whole proceeds will be given to that noble charity, the Ladies' Mutual Aid Association. Mr. Withers, the famous violinist, will play one of his re soles, and will be accompanied by a full band. We do hope that these lectures will be largely a tended.

THE EDGEFIELD BAR AND JUDGE ORR .- We take the following report from the Edgefield Ad-

At a meeting of the members of the bar of Edgefield, held on Wednesday, the 19th instant, ex-governor M. L. Bonham presiding, the following resolution was offered by Join E. Bacon, Esq., and unanimously adopted by the meeting:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Edgefield bar are emigently due and are bershy tendered to bis. are eminently due and are hereby tendered to his Honor, Judge Orr, for holding the present extra term of the court, and for the dignity, at lity and courtesy with which he has discharged his duties as presiding officer of the court.

courtesy with which he has discharged his duties as presiding officer of the court. On motion by S. B. Griffin, Esq.:

Resolved, That the above resolution of thanks be published in the Edgefield Advertiser.

Ex-Governor Bonham, 'n his usual happy and ornate manner, presented the above resolutions to his Honor on the last day of the term, followed by General M. W. Gary on the part of the jurors in tendering their thanks, as also those of the community to Judge Orr, for the strict yet courteous impartiality and ability manifested during the entire term.

"GIM ME SUM DAT PIE"-A DISGUSTING IN-CIDENT.—The Columbia Guardian says : "Quite an amusing scene, and one indicative of the dignity of that august body, occurred in the House a day or two since. DeLarge having procured some-thing in the appearance of an apple pie, was dividing it very generously among such of his confreres as were seated next him, when Elliott, who was seated some distance off, rushed up, and in rather peremptory terms, demanded a slice. As the ple, so DeLarge's liberality had diminished. and there being but a single slice remaining, he replied to Elliott's demand by ramming that hastily in his own mouth. Elliott was not to be so easily robbed of his expected treat-like an eagle he pounced upon de-large member from Charleston, and grasping him by the throat, endeavored to choke him into a more generous state of mind. Being the stouter, and having the advantage in position, he standing and the other seated, Elliott succeeded in jamming DeLarge's head down upon his chair, when the latter ended the encounter by ing his knife upon his antagonist's leg, sending him scampering away to his seat, amid the laughter of the House."

GOVERNMENT LANDS IN BEAUTONT .- OUR Washington correspondent informs us that a bill has been introduced in the United States House | ber of persons who were debarred the privilege of of Representatives and referred to the Committee on Public Lands, authorizing the conveyance of certain government property in the County of Beaufort, S. C., to the State of South Carolina, for streets and scenes of New York move before the common school purposes. It is as follows:

Whereas, The United States Government own a large amount of taxable property of the County of Beaufort, South Carolina, for which no tax is a large amount of taxable property of the County of Beaufort, South Carolina, for which no tax is paid either to the State of South Carolina or to the County of Beaufort, thereby burdening the people of said State and county much more heavily than would be the case if said property was ewned by the taxpayers of said county; and, whereas, said property is diminishing in value, uncared for as it now is; therefore,

Be itenacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all property owned by the Government of the United States in the County of Beaufort, South Carolina, which has come into the possession of the United States under the operation of the act of Congress approved June 7, 1862, and entitled "An act for the collection of direct taxes in insurrectionary districts within the United States, and for other purposes," and under the operation of any act amendatory thereto, except lands lawfully set apart for military or naval uses, including the site designated for a navy-yard on St. Helena island, be and is hereby turned over or conveyed to the State of South Carolina for educational purposes within said State; and all sales of such property shail be set apart by the said State for common schools, in which all the youth of the State, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, steplies in the state of South Carolina shall first, by legislative enactment, accept these provisions.

A BOLD ROBBERY .- The house of the City Sheriff has been robbed of bed-clothing and other articles of value. Several robberies have also NEWS, from the first day of its publication, has been reported in different parts of the city, and the police authorities and detectives should be on

FOREIGN LABOR .- We learn from the Camlen Journal that Colonel Shannon and Major Cantey have each received from the Yew Jerry Society several German laborers, and that Dr. Burnet and Mr. Charles J. Shannon, Jr., have both families of the same descent on the way from New York. The Journal says:

York. The Journal says:

The immigrants who have been here now for some weeks evince that Mr. Bruggeman, the agent, has been very careful in his selection; they are a neat, tidy, courteous and well informed, and exceedingly industrious people, from the agricultural districts, and will, no doubt, prove a valuable acquisition to our laboring class. F. W. Bruggeman, Newberry, can supply, if immediately ordered, twenty or thirty families, and two or three-hundred single laborers in time for the ensuing crop—certainly before the first of March.

How GREAT IS SOUTH CAROLINA!-With a netropolis that was the hotbed of secession, the first that caused the "old flag" to be lowered, and one that sustained a siege unprecedented in history, the Palmetto State has not yet had her full need of glory and renown. It is now asserted, positively, that South Carolina, the birthplace of Calhoun, and the honored mother of Rutledge, Mc Duffle and Hayne, who are all known in the past history of the State, has also the distinguished satisfaction of claiming the authorship "Shoo, Fly." A number of theories have been advanced as to the origin of this now popular melody, but the most plausible, and one that is authenticated by numbers of gentlemen in this gusta; J. A. Graham, Chester; C. E. Richards, ed to said Estate are requested to make payment city is, that the tune and melody originated with the negroes on the plantations adjoining Black H. P. Pomeroy and nurse, Thomas Clark, William River. In 1851, a number of gentlemen, includ- E. Story, J. C. Osgood, wife and servant, E. C. ing several savants who were on a geological survey, visited that section, and at a Christmas dance heard not only the music and words, but | chusetts; E. C. Stark, New York; Grange Lard, the chorus of "Shoo, Fly, Don't Bodder Me." Without arrogating any musical supremacy, this State can fairly claim the authorship of the song, and wherever it is heard, few persons can trace it further than a plantation melody, popular among the South Carolina negroes before the war, and latterly introduced in this city.

CANDIDATES FOR GEORGIA SENATORS .- A spe cial to the Augusta Chronicle says: "The acknowledged candidates for the senatorship, to which Hon. Joshua Hill and Dr. H. V. Miller were elected by the original Reconstruction Legislature and whose credentials are now on file with the clerk of the Senate at Washington, are Foster Blodgett; Parrott, Radcial Judge of Superior Court and Speaker of the late Reconstruction Convention; Mott, late military Mayor of Columbus, and Honorable Attorney-General for the State of Georgia and public prosecutor before the Military Eligibility Commission. All of these reach out expectantly expecting to promote reconstruction in the Senate of the United States. Blodgett, however, has proved sharper than all. even Farrow, who had the making of the Legislature, and evidently has the inside track. It is ru mored that John Underwood, of Flove, is engaged to take the seat of recalcetrant Chief Justice Joseph E. Brown. Present officers of the Statehouse are all to remain in office, except Treasurer Angier, who is exceedingly obnoxious to his provisional Excellency. The Bullockites are working hard, leaving no stone unturned to have those having next highest votes to the ineligible seated before proceeding to perfect the organization of the House."

THE LEGITIMATE DRAMA .- We are exceedingly pleased to be able to state that, through the enterprise of fr. Ford, we are to have next week, at the Academy of Music, a series of entertainments the bare announcement of which will be sufficient to fill the house "from turret to founda tion stone." With a just appreciation of the tastes of the community, he has determined to put upon the beards several of the best legitimate comedies in the dramatic repertoire. Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," Sheridan's "Rivals," the "Heir-at-Law" and several other comedies of the same class at d reputation, will be produced with all the care and completeness which have characterized the representation of the legitimate drama under Mr. Ford's auspices. The present company will be retained for the ensuing week, and, with the addition of several other sterling actors who have been specially sent for. will make up a very strong and effective cast. In roles like "Tony Lumpkin" and "Bob Acres, Bishop is said to be unrivalled by any comedian now on the stage, and the lighter parts will be ably sustained by the Chapmans, Mr. Kennedy and the new importations.

The comedies we have mentioned have not been produced in Charleston for many years, and the opportunity which is now afforded us of seeing them under the most favorable auspices will, w are sure, be eagerly embraced. Charleston will certainly not be behindhand in showing its appreciation of the plays which, for nearly a hundred years, have held triumphant nossession of the British and American stage and have been acted to crowded and delighted houses wherever the English language is spoken.

THE PANORAMA OF NEW YORK CITY .- The afternoon and evening exhibition of this panorama in the Hibernian Hall, yesterday, was a decided success, as on each occasion every seat was filled, and numbers had to leave from want of room. Every preparation had been made to accommodate the crowds that were expected to attend, but the hall was by far too small for the many that thronged to the exhibition. A numseats were compelled to leave.

The stage has been fitted up expressly for the panorama, and the gorgeous display of the spectators with such a faithful representation that the different localities are easily recognized by those persons familiar with Gotham. Broadway, with its elegant hotels, splendid stores and palatial residences, its sidewalks crowded with ladies, gentlemen, and little folks; the street thronged with carriages, drays, omnibuses, express wagons, fast horses and fast men; mili tary parades and processions; the beggar girls the street sweepers, newsboys, merchants, millionaires, "gutter shipes," roughs, pickpockets greenies from the country, policemen, and hundreds of other characters-all make up a picture that enhance the interest of every one, and affords abundant pleasure. Mr. Norton, the lecturer, who gives a ranning commentary on the scenes of the panorama, understands his business well, and adds a great deal to the interest of the exhibition. He knows New York "like a book," and the amount of information his remarks contain, and his entertaining description of life in New York, its wealth and work, its generosity and its meanness, its thousands of objects of interest is alone worth the admission fee. The panorama will be exhibited this afternoon and evening, and until Wednesday of next week.

JAMES CONNER'S SONS .- We publish to-day the advertisement of this well-known firm. THE been printed with type made at this foundry, and is a pe reunial proof of their taste and skill. We commend James Conner's Sons to the printing 24, and now in Union Wharves Store, unclaimed: fraternity as sound, liberal, fair-dealing and ac curate business men.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC-BENEFIT OF THE CHAP-MANS .- The favorite comedy of "A Serious Family" was produced last evening to the most intensely appreciative audience that we have ever seen. Bishop as Aminidab Sleek provoked roars of laughter with every intenation of his voice, and almost with every expression of his wonderfully mobile face. Mr. Kennedy played the rollicking Irish Captain with his accustomed spirit, and Mrs. Capman was very good as Lady Sowerby Creamly.

In the burlesque of "Cinderella." which suc seeded, the enjoyment of the audience was fully sustained, and altogether the performance was perhaps the most uniformly meritorious of the season. In the closing chorus especially, the en cores were most enthusiastic, and Ella Chapman's clog dance was called for three times.

There will be a matinee this afternoon, with "Joan of Arc" and "Shoo Fly" on the bills; and at night the capital comedy of "Paul Pry" and the burlesque of "Kenliworth," the latter the best extravaganza at present on the boards.

THE INFIRMITIES OF AGE .-

Decrepitude is the natural accompaniment of old age, but it may be ameliorated, and the period of entire helplessness long postponed by the judicious use of a healthful stimulant. Physicians, fully aware of this fact, usually recommend modcrate stimulation when the strength and vigor o maturity have been suspended by the feebleness and prostration which are the inevitable results of declining years. Port wine, gin, brandy and other liquors are often prescribed by medical men for aged persons, but the impulses which ferment ed and distilled liquors give to the circulation, and the energy they seem to impart, is transitory, unless the alcoholic principle is modified and qualified by the presence of medical tonics and invigorants. Of all the combinations of dif fusive stimuli with the juices of herbs, roots andbarks that have ever been administered to the aged and infirm, with the view of sustaining their waning strength, cheering their drooping spirits and relieving their aches and pains to which they are subjected, none has been found so efficacions, so agreeable and so permanent in its effects as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The difference between the effect of the Bitters and that of a mere excitant, however pure, is the same as between the effect of a sudden and momentary application of excessive force to a given purpose, and the result of a steady, continuous application of exactly the requiste amount of force to the same end. The mere spirit of physicial energy produced by a dram (and which is always suc ceeded by corresponding depression) never yet benefitted any man or woman suffering from physical decay. A cordial like Hostetter's Bitters, at once soothing and invigorating, is the jan29 CD&C Sub-Committees were accordingly appointed as remedial agent required.
